The Silent Rainmaker

The Silent Rainmaker

When you took the High-Income Skill Quiz, your unique strengths and weaknesses were uncovered. You're now about to discover what high-income skill, you, as a Silent Rainmaker, were born to do.

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE WHO ARE RAINMAKERS LIKE YOU

BILL GATES

JK ROWLING

ALBERT EINSTEIN

ROSA PARKS

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

MAHATMA GANDHI

STEVEN SPIELBERG

ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

MICHAEL JORDAN

ELON MUSK

Have you ever felt 'unseen' in the workplace, even when you are the one silently producing results behind the scenes? You often listen more than you talk. You think and calculate before you speak. And when you need to rest or recharge, you prefer to spend alone time or with one or two close people rather than with a large group.

You value a few close, intimate friends over many acquaintances. You focus on forming long-lasting relationships. And it's not uncommon for a Silent Rainmaker like you to turn down an invitation to a dinner or social activity to stay home and do a quiet or mentally stimulating activity. For example: reading, spending time with a loved one, or working on their latest hobby or obsession.

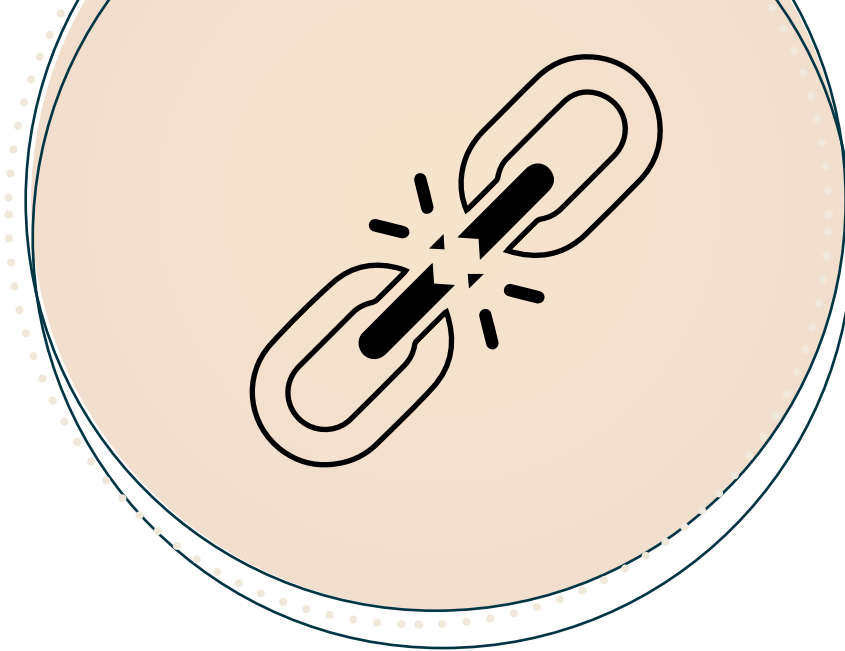

You care about meaning or purpose. Especially in your work. You want to make a difference in the world. There's a reason you are on this earth. But if you feel your work is meaningless, it can be easy to feel unmotivated or lazy.

Your Strengths and Skills

- Deep self-reflection is a skill most people lack, but something you excel in. You are thoughtful, aware, and reflective.
- You think things through carefully and are deliberate with your words. This makes you an incredible strategic thinker and problem solver. There's no problem you can't solve with enough time to think about it.
- You have a good attention to detail with unmatched abilities in logical thinking and 'brain work.'
- You work well independently or by yourself, especially from home or in a job that offers flexibility. You don't need to be micromanaged and you do well on your own.
- You have a natural strength in expressing yourself and your emotions in writing.

Your Weaknesses and Struggles

- You can sometimes be soft-spoken or felt unseen. You may even have withdrawn and quiet tendencies that make people second-guess your confidence and conviction in your thoughts and ideas.
- With a natural tendency to overthink things and be ‘in your head’ too much, paralysis by analysis is a natural enemy for Silent Rainmakers like you, and one of the leading causes of inaction.
- You have a difficult time thinking in noisy, loud, or crowded environments. Space, time, and quiet are needed for you to do your best work.
- You can get overwhelmed easily from too much stimulation and may sometimes avoid social situations like dinner parties and events altogether.
- Most people don’t seem to ‘get’ Silent Rainmakers like you. Other people think you are shy or nervous when in fact, you’re just trying to not interrupt the conversation. Or you only want to contribute when you feel you have something of value to say.

The High-Income Skill You Were Born To Do

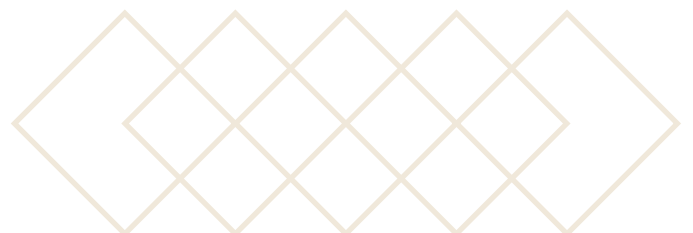

Whether you know it or not, Silent Rainmakers are highly respected for their skills, and how their work can impact and touch the lives of thousands or even millions.

The most rewarding work for Silent Rainmakers like you:

- ✓ Is intellectually stimulating. Otherwise you are easily bored at work.
- ✓ Is meaningful and purposeful. If your work doesn't contribute toward a greater mission, they feel lazy and unmotivated.
- ✓ Gives you independence. Ideally, remotely from home or anywhere in the world. You excel at being and working by yourself.

Putting money aside, does your occupation or current job have all of these 3 ingredients? How about 2?

YOUR STRENGTHS AND SKILLS SUGGEST THAT THE HIGH-INCOME SKILL YOU WERE BORN TO DO IS:

Copywriting

Copywriting was the first high-income skill I ever developed, which offers all 3 of these ingredients: intellectually stimulating, fun, and challenging work. Independence. And meaning and purpose.

You are good at thinking things through carefully and being deliberate with your words. Their attention to detail and ability to notice things that most don't is an important strength to have as a copywriter.

Expressing themselves in writing is often far easier than in conversation. And your natural tendency to be able to have deeper thoughts compared to most people makes you a natural copywriter.

Copywriters need the ability to think, reflect, and problem solve. All 3 natural strengths Silent Rainmakers like you already possess.

What Is Copywriting?

If you don't know copywriting, it's one of the highest in-demand skills out there right now.

Maybe you have a degree or some kind of formal education. Then you'll be able to pick up this skill quickly and work with companies. If you don't have a degree, don't worry, I'll give you a step-by-step blueprint to become a copywriter.

With copywriting, I made 6 figures in my early twenties as a copywriter and got me and my mom out of $150,000 in debt.

Copywriting is about having the ability to make people say 'yes' with your written words. It's about writing conversationally. Not academically.

And it's something that every single business needs to get more clients and customers. Not only that, they're willing to pay anyone with this skill. They simply don't have the time or skill to do it themselves.

It's simple, but it's not an easy skill to learn. It's not about getting rich quick or having money fall on your lap. This is about offering real value to real businesses in exchange for money.

If you can develop this skill and stick with it, it opens the door to a high-paying, fulfilling career that you could do for the rest of your life. And it has the 3 ingredients of rewarding work that all Silent Rainmakers need.

I attribute my success as a copywriter to my first mentor, Alan Jacques who was kind enough to take me under his wing and show me what he's learned. I want to do the same for you in this training.

As a Silent Rainmaker you have an advantage over others trying to learn this skill. It's one of the most valuable skills out there, and I look forward to being the one to help you develop it.
